Fulbright Student Fellowship Program
Scholarship for a Master’s Degree in the United States

 The deadline for the online application is June 10, 2022

The U.S. Embassy is pleased to announce the opportunity to compete for the 2023-2024 Fulbright Student Scholarship for graduate study in the United States.

Fulbright Scholarships will be awarded for study in a Master’s degree program during the 2023-2024 academic year (July 2023-June 2024). Fulbright grants will be awarded for graduate study at the Master’s degree level in all fields of study except medicine. (Note: However, applications will be accepted in the field of public health.) Individuals from both the public and the private sectors may apply. Women, minorities, and candidates from outside the capital city of Vientiane are encouraged to apply.

The Fulbright Program was established by the U.S. Congress in 1946 by the U.S. Congress as a means “to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries”. For more than sixty years the Fulbright Program has provided opportunities for foreign nationals to study, teach, and pursue research in the U.S.
